STUDENT CONDUCT / BEHAVIOR EXPECTATIONS

- Mobile phones must be “off/silent” during all instructional sessions (i.e. classroom, BTW, observation). Mobile phone use during instructional sessions may be considered “disruptive conduct.”
- Disruptive and/or disrespectful behavior will result in a parent-instructor conference. Further inappropriate behavior may result in a student being removed from the course without a refund.
- Illegal activities on the premises may result in the student being removed from the course without refund.

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

- Parent Orientation is REQUIRED
 - attend the online Zoom orientation meeting and/or watch the recording of the orientation meeting
 - will be scheduled prior to the start of each course
 - date/time of the orientation and a link to join the Zoom meeting will be sent via email
 - after the online Zoom meeting is completed, a link for the video will be sent via email
 - Parents must review Washington State’s Intermediate Driver’s License \(IDL\) restrictions and requirements (WAC 308-108-120) prior to registration. IDL requirements will also be covered during Parent Orientation.
 - To ensure student safety, families are expected to pick up their student promptly after each classroom, BTW and observation sessions.
 - Practice - Practice - Practice
 - Students who receive at-home support are more likely to meet the minimum score of 80% or better on the end-of-course classroom and BTW exams
 - WA DOL requires fifty (50) additional hours of BTW practice prior to applying for a driver’s license, including ten (10) hours of nighttime driving.
